

Naissance de Joseph CAMPERGUE
Le 05 février 1693 à Pruines (Aveyron)

The image shows a handwritten document, likely a baptismal record, written in cursive. The text is written in brown ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The handwriting is somewhat slanted and dense. At the top, the name 'Jean deher' is visible. The main body of text describes a baptism on the 5th of February, mentioning the parents 'Guion Campergue' and 'Catherine Ganes', and the location 'village d'Aulhas'. It also lists the godparents: 'Joseph Parrain' and 'Jean Campergue' as parrain, and 'Marie Campergue' as marraine. The document is signed 'Vassal' at the bottom right.

Le 5 février (1693) a été baptisé un fils à Guion Campergue et à Catherine Ganes mariés du village d'Aulhas auquel a été donné le nom de Joseph. Parrain Jean Campergue, marraine Marie Campergue [...]
